About the Artist

Originally from Melbourne, I began painting over 15 years ago under the tutelage of Carol Rootman. She was a wonderful teacher who encouraged me to develop my own way of reflecting the world around me and as I have always been attracted to the interpretation of light and colour as favoured by 'The Impressionists', it seemed natural for me to paint in this romantic style.

I now live in Bondi with my husband Craig, our children Scott and Ashleigh and our little dogs, Bruce and Bella, and I attend classes at the Waverley Woollahra Art Centre where I have enjoyed tuition from some great teachers.

Thanks then to Michael Heron, Lorna Greer, Pam Cowper and especially to Steven Papantoniou who has expanded my knowledge and made me laugh!

I am also very grateful for the wonderful travel experiences I have had and to the lovely ladies at Art Moment Gallery.
