

MAY 6-7, 2004

THE PLANNER

GOING, GOING ...

FASHION MOMENTS

Following the hectic Mercedes Fashion Week, 27 local artists are winding up their Fashion Moments show at Bondi, before moving on to Arthouse Hotel (from Monday) at 275 Pitt Street, city. (Pictured is Nyk Sykes's photograph of Sophie Monk.) Sunday, 11am-4pm, Art Moment Gallery, 99 Curlew Street, Bondi Beach, free, 9365 4979 or see artmoment.com.au.

MIND BODY SPIRIT

Whether it be stress reduction, progressive therapies, psychic readings or weight loss, the Mind Body Spirit Festival caters for every health and fitness need. Saturday and Sunday, 10am-2pm, Sydney Convention and Exhibition Centre, Darling Harbour, $14/$10/free under-14s, mbfestival.com.au.

THE GOAT, OR WHO IS SYLVIA?

Edward Albee's play is explicit, dark, moving and funny. Saturday, 2pm and 8pm; Sunday, 5pm; Seymour Centre, Chippendale, $48/$30, 9699 3444 or belvoir.com.au.

BUDDHA'S BIRTHDAY

To celebrate Buddha's birthday, the Nan Tien Temple will host vegetarian food stalls, art and crafts demonstrations and multicultural singing and dancing performances. Saturday and Sunday, 9am-4pm, Chinese Garden forecourt, Darling Harbour, free, 9893 9390 or niantien.org.au.

FREE

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Be inspired by the cream of graphic arts and illustration from around the world at the Sydney showing of the New York Art Directors' Club 84th Annual Awards Exhibition. Saturday, 10am-5pm, Billy Blue School of Graphic Arts, 171 Pacific Highway, North Sydney, 9955 1122.

SWING THE ROCKS

After browsing through The Rocks Market, relax with the Jupiter 3 playing jazz and swing at The Rocks Square. Sunday, noon-2.45pm, The Rocks Square, Playfair Street, for details, phone 1902 222 222 or see therocks.com.

HERITAGE CRAFT FAIR

Take your pick from more than 250 stalls of original arts and crafts, fresh produce, imported goods, gourmet food, home wares and garden products. Music and children's activities are a bonus. Sunday, 9am-3pm, St Ives Showground, Mona Vale Road (near the wildflower garden), $5 for parking, heritagecraftfair.com.au.

ROCK THE BLOCK

Feed your ears with five hours of non-stop rock, hip-hop, pop and acoustic sounds. Catch Combat Wombat and Andama (pictured) and watch the Australian Film Commission's Blackscreen film series. Kids' entertainment provided. Saturday, 1-5pm, Lawson Street, Redfern (near the station), discount drink and sausage for those who donate, 9698 9249.

PHOTOGRAPH BY [unreadable]