

Art Moment Presents LIBERTE

Art Moment Gallery is proud to present Julianna Evans' first solo Sydney exhibition LIBERTE. Evans' pieces are found in private collections both in Australia and overseas and it's time her work was unveiled in Bondi.

At 28 years of age Julianna Evans hails from rural Cornwall, England and with her renowned artist father Edward Mahon, painting is in her blood. While growing up the main form of entertainment for her and her siblings was total freedom to decorate a wall each in their house.

"When I was 16, my punishment for sneaking out to a party was having to draw my Dad. By having to face each other for two hours, it was our way of dealing with the conflict."

Julianna is a seasoned traveller. Years of volunteer work in Nigeria, travels through Europe and Malaysia influenced her richly colourful expansive artworks, filling them with vigour and sensuality.

Based in Bondi Beach, Julianna's ideal day when she is not off on shoots for television and fashion magazines is to wake up at 5am, jump in the ocean and spend the rest of the day painting on her bedroom floor. Don't miss LIBERTE this month.
